ASKing for Revival

People today are far from the knowledge of God, unaware of the God of the Bible who thunders. (Psalm 18) Some people today believe they are a god themselves. But in a time of revival, God makes Himself known to men and displays His great power.

Today the whole earth is yearning for revelation of the One, True, Living God. But when He comes sin must go, religious tradition must cease. Life, as we know it will change. Are we hungry for such change? Are we ASKing for all that is not of God's kingdom to be taken from us? May God help us to ASK in the measure He wants to give.

"...to Him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ASK or imagine, according to His power that is at work within us, to Him be glory in the church..." Ephesians 3:20-21

Why Do We Need Revival?

The days are evil and darkness covers the earth —

We are living in more wicked and evil days than any other generation. Our hearts have been darkened. Even the church has given itself to the seductive ways of the enemy.

This is a time of great delusion. No human power can do away with this darkness. 2 Thessalonians 2:3-12

The lost glory of the church —

So many in the church have forgotten Jesus is the fountain from which they must draw anointing, power and life. Sin and human initiative have weakened the church. How can a despised church give hope to the world? Jeremiah 2:11-13, 2 Timothy 3:1-5

To separate us from sin —

On our own, we have no power to stay away from sin, but when we come into contact with the power of the Holy Spirit, we will be able to stand. Romans 5:8-10

Jesus is coming back —

Drowsiness and apathy have bought about dullness, even in the church. We are about to hear the midnight cry saying "behold the bridegroom is coming!" Very soon the trumpet shall blow, and the bride must be ready. Matthew 25:1-13

To prepare us for heaven —

This world is not our home. This earthly journey must prepare us to live forever in the presence of a holy triune God. Philippians 3:20-21

FAST FACTS ABOUT SOUTH SUDAN

Area: 735,355 sq. mi. Peoples: 80 (13 unreached) Capital: Juba
Religion: 60.5% Christian
Official language: English. 2nd Language-Arabic, Sudanese
Population: 10,416,000

The civil war that raged in Sudan killing over 2 million of its citizens finally came to an end on July 9, 2011 and South Sudan became the newest nation in the world. The black Africans of South Sudan who are mainly Christians and compose the largest ethnicity of that region have been seeking peace. The mostly Muslim Arabic north under the direction of President Omar al-Bashir is targeting the Christians of South Sudan with bombs that have destroyed most of the area where the Nuba mountain people live. 800,000 people are slowly being annihilated, victims of ethnic cleansing. According to President Bashir, their only crime is that they are black and refuse to submit to his radical Islamic government. Mr. Bashir has been indicted by the International Criminal Court for war crimes related to this genocide. In spite of that, for the last 9 months the world has ignored this humanitarian crisis. The relentless bombing destroyed crops and 500 churches, and caused the population to flee their homes. to the mountains. They are living in caves for protection or in refugee camps that humanitarian groups have set up. They are resorting to eating leaves from thorn bushes, roots, tree bark and bugs in the mountains where there is little other food. With the rainy season approaching Samaritan's Purse and other aid agencies will not be able to reach these suffering people over the muddy roads. Airlifts would be the only recourse and the cargo planes are no match for the Mig fighter jets and Antonov bombers of the north. ASK for:

- God to raise up nations and people like Esther who would intervene and stop this genocide. Esther 4:16 "I will go to the king...and if I perish, I perish." 5:2-3 "...he held out the gold scepter and asked, What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom." 7:3..."spare my people who have been sold for destruction, slaughter and annihilation."
- God to change the heart of President Bashir to come in line with His plans. Ezra 1:1 "In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia the Lord moved his heart to make a proclamation." (for the people to return to their homeland.) Ezra 7: 6,18, 23 The king (Artaxerxes) granted him (Ezra) everything he asked for the hand of the LORD was on him...do whatever seems best...in accordance with the will of your God...whatever the God of heaven has prescribed, let it be done with diligence."
- Christians to take responsibility to defend the weak and stand up against the injustice aimed at the South Sudanese. Luke 10:30-37. "He had compassion on him and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine, set him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. Go and do likewise."
